

Assignment 4

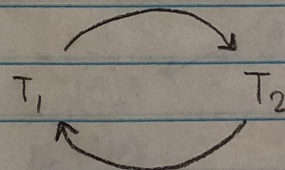

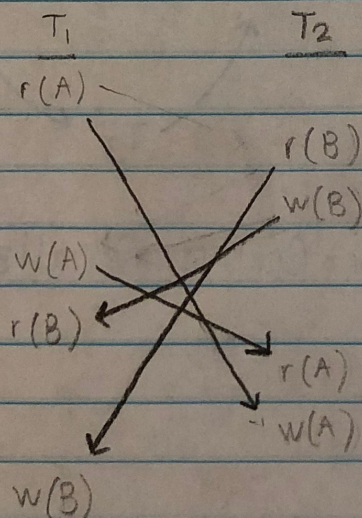

Not Conflict Serializable

2. A serializable schedule is a schedule whose effect on any consistent database instance is guaranteed to be identical to that of some complete serial schedule over S . A conflict serializable schedule is a subset of a serializable schedule and can be transformed into a serializable schedule by swapping non-conflicting operations.

w(B) will make the schedule not conflict serializable

4. Not Conflict Serializable

Not Conflict Serializable